

YORK U ALUMNI NEWS

THE YORK U
ALUMNI AWARDS

SAVE THE DATE
NOVEMBER 6

Save the date: The York U Alumni Awards

Join us November 6 at the Glenn Gould Studio in downtown Toronto as we honour our outstanding alumni. Stay tuned for this year's group of recipients! Learn more.

York alumni bring home gold, silver and bronze at Paris Olympics

Congratulations to Asia Hogan-Rochester on winning a silver medal in women's Rugby 7s, Katie Vincent on winning bronze in the women's Canoe Double 500m and an impressive gold medal in the women's Canoe Single 200m, and Brandie Wilkerson and Melissa Humana-Parades on winning silver in Beach Volleyball. Read more about Brandie and Melissa.

Memorial award honours humanitarian alumna

An accomplished communications executive, philanthropist and York alumna, Lenni Mae Eubanks graduated in 1994 with a BA in political science, and one year later she earned a second bachelor's degree from York in education. After her passing in 2023, her husband Michael Eubanks (BA '93) established a brand-new endowed award to honour her legacy of positive change. Read more.

Alumni Spotlight

York alumnus Matthew R. Morris (BED '11) is an educator, anti-racism advocate, writer and public speaker based in Toronto. His national best-selling book, Black Boys Like Me: Confrontations with Race, Identity, and Belonging, tackles the issues of identity that young Black students experience as they navigate their way through the education system. Read more.

New funding supports training in vaccine production at York U

Thanks to new funding from the Ontario Ministry of Colleges & Universities, the Faculty of Science is launching a new micro-credential in Vaccine Production and Quality Assurance in Winter 2025 at York University's Markham Campus. Read more.

Join York's Young Alumni Ambassador program

We're seeking new members, with openings for grads from all Faculties. Grow your professional network while flexing your leadership and community building skills. Learn more.

ALUMNI BENEFITS

Save on passes to the Canadian National Exhibition (CNE)

Admission passes are $22 and Ride All Day passes are $45 until August 15. Get the deal.

Best of India and Brahmaputra River

On August 20 learn about a captivating 15-day journey through India in 2025 through our travel partner GLP Worldwide. Register for free webinar.

The Bowl at Sobeys Stadium

Save 10% on tickets to Boomstock, Kevin Hart and Milky Chance. Purchase tickets today.